Rules
Governing the Commissioners of Wilkins Township

I
Meetings of the Commissioners

Stated meetings of the commissioners shall be held on the first Saturday of each month at 3 o'clock P.M.

A majority of the commissioners shall constitute a quorum

II Special meetings of the commissioners may be called by the clerk, at the order of the chairman or of three commissioners, provided that such order shall be in writing, specify the purpose for which the meeting is called, and be signed by the parties ordering the call, which said call shall be entered by the clerk on the minutes of each special meeting.

III At the special meetings of the commissioners no bucisness shall be transacted other than that included and entered in the call, unless by the unanimous consent of all the commissioners.

IV At the hour appointed for the meeting of the commissioners, the chairman shall take the chair and direct the clerk to call the roll and note the absenters, and no member shall depart without permission of the chairman.
In the absence of the chairman, or clerk the members present shall elect a chairman or clerk pro tem.
Should no quroum attend within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting shall thereupon stand adjourned to such time thereafter as the chairman, or, in his absence, the members present, shall determine, or a recess may be taken, in order to secure a quroum.

V The order of business at all stated meetings of the commissioners shall be as follows.
1 Reading, correction and approval of the minutes of the previous meeting

2 Presentation of petitions, letters, memorials, remonstrances and ordinances; resolutions not giving rise to debate may also be offered for adoption at this time
3 The reports from officers and committees
4 Reports of special committees
5 Motions and resolutions.
6 Unfinished business.
7 Miscellaneous business.

VI The chairman shall enforce all rules adopted for the government of the meetings of the commissioners, shall preserve order and confine members to the question under discussion. When two or more members desire recognition at the same time, he shall designate the one entitled to the floor. He shall decide all questions of order, but his decision may be appealed from and overruled by a vote of a majority of the commissioners.

VII Every ordinance, or resolution have the effect of an ordinance, upon presentation at the meeting of the commissioners, shall be referred by the chairman to the appropriate committee, which said committee shall report at or before the next regular meeting of the commissioners in favor or adversely to such communication or ordinance.

VIII All ordinances shall be read three times before final passage, and shall not be read more than twice on any one day, and no ordinance shall be considered passed which does not secure the affirmative votes of a majority of the commissioners

IX The ayes and nays may be demanded on any question at any time before the vote shall have been announced, upon the call of any two of the commissioners, and the clerk shall thereupon take the vote by calling the roll in alphabetical order, except that the name of the chairman shall be called last, and the votes so taken shall be recorded in the minutes

X No ordinance shall be so altered or amended during its passage as to change its original purpose, and no ordinance shall be passed containing or relating to more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in its title.

XI After the third reading of any ordinance a vote shall be taken to upon its final passage by ayes and nays and the names of the members voting for and against the same shall be entered on the minutes.

XII Every legislative act of the members shall be by resolution or ordinance, and no ordinance or resolution having the effect of an ordinance, shall become a law until ten days after the same has been published in such manner as may hereafter be designated by ordinance. No resolution or ordinance giving any additional consideration to any public officer, servant, employee, agent or contractor, after such service shall have been contracted for and rendered, nor providing for the payment of any claim against the Township unless the payment of the same be authorized by previous authority of law, shall be passed, except by the unanimous vote of the commissioners.

XIII Whenever any ordinance upon its third reading and final passage shall receive the votes of a majority of members present, but not a majority of the members elected, such ordinance shall be considered as laid upon the table, and may be called up for further action at the same or any subsequent meeting of the commissioners

XIV When a question is under discussion, no motion shall be received, except motions for adjournment, for the question be laid on the table, to postpone indefinitely, or to a certain time, for recommitment, or for amendment. These questions shall have preference in the order stated, and the first three shall be decided without debate. When a motion to lay on the table has been passed, the subject takes its place in the order of unfinished business

XV When a question has been once decided either affirmatively or negatively, it shall be in order for any member who may have voted in the majority, to move for a reconsideration, but no such motion shall be in order unless made on the day on which the vote may have been taken, or at the next regular meeting subsequent thereto.

XVI No member shall speak upon any motion or business for a longer period than five minutes except by the unanimous consent of the commissioners present. No second motion to reconsider any question shall be entertained.

XVII At the call of two of the commissioners the previous question shall be put and determined without debate, but when a question has been called and sustained it shall not cut off any pending amendments, but the votes shall be taken without debate, on the amendments, and then on the main question

XVIII A motion to adjourn shall always be in order except when a member has the floor, or when the commissioners are voting on any question, or during a call for a previous question. The word "resolution", when relating to any permanent matter, shall be considered as synonymous with "ordinance" when mentioned in these rules.

XIX The chairman shall appoint five committees, each to consist of three of the commissioners, as follows.
1: A committee on Finance,
2: A committee on Highways and Sewers.
3: A committee on Public Property,
4: A committee on Public Safety
5: A committee on Ordinances and Rules
The chairman shall be an ex officio member of all committees, but without power to vote at meetings of the same.

XX The person first named as a member of any committee shall be the chairman thereof. All reports from committees shall be in writing, signed by the chairman, and accompanied by the papers referd to in the report. Nothing in this rule shall be construed to prevent the introduction of minority reports.

XXI Committees of the Whole.
The commissioners may, on motion, resolve themselves into a committee of the whole, whereupon the chairman having first appointed a chairman of the committee, shall leave the chair, when the committee arises, the chairman of the same shall report their action to the commissioners, which report shall be spread upon the minutes. The rules of Councils shall prevail in committees of the whole, but the ayes and nays shall not be called thereat.

XXII The rules of the commissioners governing the meetings of the commissioners may be suspended by a unanimous vote of the commissioners.

XXIII Roberts, Rules of Order shall be the authority for the government of the meetings of the commissioners in such matters as are not provided for in these rules
